

Response Rubric

Assessment - Supplemental material

This rubric is designed to assist teachers and discussion leaders in evaluating student responses during discussions or oral reporting about the Omoide lessons and stories. If a written element is used for responses, you may find it helpful to pair this rubric with the writing rubric provided.

	Names	Examples	Behaviors	Notes
4-Participates fully, offers suggestions and comments that support others ideas as well as address the content of the activity.
3-Participates without prompting, can correctly identify facts and events.
2-Responds correctly or predictably when prompted, may not be comfortable adding own thoughts or ideas to conversation.
1-Will respond only when invited may not be clear on topic or content of discussion.
0-Does not participate or has no related response to activity or dialog.				